

New Multimedia Exhibits

Produced in partnership with Science North

Aviation History

Travel through 85 years of Red Lake's fascinating bush flying history with legendary pilot Harold Farrington. Hold on to your seat as he takes you on a thrilling Norseman ride over the historic gold rush trail to Red Lake.

Movie shown on a 16 feet wide HD screen.

Aboriginal History

Gather around a ceremonial dance pavilion and learn about the myths and dreams of a remarkable Ojibway leader. Experience a haunting light and sound show on the Legend of Red Lake and other stories.

Narrated in Ojibway and English.

Also view beautiful artifacts representing six surrounding Aboriginal communities.

Hell's Acres

Visit Gramma Gene Campbell at her log cabin at Hell's Acres and listen to her colourful recollections of her courtship and marriage to George Campbell, the discoverer of the world's richest gold mine. See her collection of salt and pepper shakers from around the world.

Meet two remarkable immigrant women as they share their touching stories about coming to Red Lake in search of a better life.

Mining History

Drop in for tea with life-long bachelor and prospector Cliff Harvey. Learn how he found his way to Red Lake in 1926, and why he never left the area.

Listen to his amazing description of how gold was discovered on the shores of Red Lake, triggering the world's last traditional gold rush.

Meet some of the people today working at Goldcorp Gold Mine, the site of the world's richest gold deposit.

Stories told through archival images and reenactments.
