

In Loving Memory of Dr. A.B.J. "DIG" Miller-Williams 1929-2008

Anthony Miller-Williams "Digby" was born September 17, 1929 and passed away on November 4, 2008. His parents were Eustace and Iris, and he had three brothers - Dennis, John, and Bud. He was married to his wife Jean for 45 years with whom he shared two sons, Mark and Jonathan, and two daughters Caroline and Kathryn.

Dr. Miller-Williams was a brilliant surgeon, a world class man with an extraordinary talent and wit who touched the lives of so many people in so many special ways. He trained and practiced all over the world including remarkable careers in Red Lake, Ontario; Malaysia; the Indian Ocean; and the UK spanning more than 50 years. He also treated the wounded of the Vietnam War.

Per Ardua Ad Astra

"Through struggle and adversity, onward to the stars"

